

MY RALLY BAG

The following documents should be of “valid” status on board aircraft or on your person:

- Pilot’s License
- Valid Medical Certificate
- Proof of Biennial Flight Review (log Book)
- Certificate of Insurance for aircraft (form provided in rally kit)

AIRCRAFT:

- Airworthiness Certificate
- F.A.A. Registration Certificate
- Approved Flight Manual or FAA Operations Limitations Form - 309 or FAA approved placarding
- Weight & Balance Report or Repair & Alteration form - 337
- Aircraft and Engine Log Books with 100-Hr. inspection within last 90 hrs. (for leased aircraft) or annual inspection entry and evidence of compliance with airworthiness directives.
- Michigan aircraft must have current Michigan Registration Certificate

OTHER NECESSITIES:

- Your Rally Number – This number will be provided one week before the Rally (you should have two of these – one for each side of aircraft). Contact paper or plastic tape works great. (See rally kit)
- Tie downs for your airplane (ropes and stakes)
- Extra key to you aircraft (just in case)
- Charts – Michigan aeronautical chart, sectional charts, Michigan county road maps, state of Michigan road maps
- Pencils – pens – highlighter
- Note paper
- Calculator – to figure your time
- Flight calculator – to figure wind and heading
- Plotter – to draw a straight course line for you to follow
- Stopwatch or timer (it is a good idea to bring 2 or more)
- Michigan Airport Directory
- Sunglasses – it’s going to be bright & sunny!

OTHER THOUGHTS:

- Cleaning supplies to clean the dead bugs off the windshield
- Extra microphone (backup)
- Binoculars (incase you can’t find the airport)
- Ear plugs (in case you don’t want to listen to the pilot-co-pilot)
- Sweat band (in case you get nervous waiting for the start of the rally)
- Relief tube (in case you can’t wait – these are all fly-bys – no stops)
- Munchies (gum, candy)
- Tape recorder (if you want a few laughs – after the rally)
- And don’t forget to pack a change of clothes for overnight and your toothbrush
- You also might need an extra bag to carry home your trophies and prizes!
